

Leadership 2010 ProStart Excellence Awards

Request for Nominations

DEADLINE FOR NOMINATIONS IS December 1, 2009!

Teacher of the Year:

The Inspirational Leader Award is given to a high school instructor who is currently teaching the ProStart program. This instructor must be an inspirational leader to students, staff and administration. This instructor must have demonstrated commitment in excellence in educating others in the food service and hospitality industry. This teacher must also participate in all aspects of the ProStart program including administering the ProStart exam and placing students in internships.

Mentor of the Year Award:

The Mentor of the Year Award is given to a restaurant operator or post-secondary educator whose work with ProStart students has helped generate greater understanding and awareness of the foodservice and hospitality industry. This individual is someone who has been a supportive and outstanding role model.

Student of the Year:

The Future Promise Award is given to an outstanding ProStart student who has displayed a passion for the field of foodservice and hospitality, and a promise of substantial future contribution. This student must have demonstrated a commitment to completing the ProStart program, currently is in a worksite, maintaining a GPA of 2.75 or higher and is actively involved in the program or special related projects.

To nominate someone who has made a difference to you, please return this form AND a 1-page narrative (50-300 words) explaining what this individual has done to deserve the award. Additional support materials are accepted (i.e. letters of recommendation, student or nominee essays, back-up documentation such as news articles) You may be as descriptive or creative as you like, and detail is encouraged for these competitive awards. The more information provided will help the selection committee make a decision on the nominees' merits. Self-nominations are welcome!
